

Win Double for Masterful Gareth and Jesper

It just gets better and better for Cippenham Table Tennis Club. The weekend of 5th and 6th April proved to be the highlight of the playing season at the Centre - even eclipsing the two international matches.

The occasion was the National Junior and Cadet Masters Tournament - the last stage for the best twelve boys and girls in each of the two age groups. The top players were pre-invited, others had to qualify through county, regional and national trials.

Gareth Herbert has been firmly established as England's number one junior all season and was expected to win the Junior Boys' event. He did not disappoint, winning all his games with a large margin of safety, and in the final eclipsed Kent's Christian Thompson 10 and 17.

What we did not expect was that Cippenham would also win the Cadet Boys' event. With the twin attack of Martin Rule and Jesper Hougaard there was always the chance that something good would happen, but unfortunately both were placed in the same group as Michael Chan, so only one was likely to progress. Jesper beat Martin and so gained the runners-up spot in the group.

While Martin had to be content therefore with finishing fifth, Jesper was through to the semi-finals. At that stage he faced England cadet international Justin Dodd and repeated his win over the same opponent from the previous day. In the final Jesper found yet another gear and came back from 18-20 down to take the first game from Chan. Chan rallied to win the second but then Jesper brought out a series of fantastic shots to win the third 21-17 and his first national title.

Nicholas Wilson and Gemma Chapman answered SOS calls of the day to make up the numbers. Nicholas had so nearly qualified in his own right for the event, but for ten years old Gemma it was just a great learning experience.

Unlucky Jesper

Cippenham's Jesper Hougaard was the losing finalist again when the Club staged its Junior Open Championships in April. Jesper had previously been runner-up to Martin Rule in the Cippenham Cadet Open in December.

Following on from his fantastic performance in the National Junior and Cadet Masters the previous weekend, the number one seed was expected to add to his haul of gold. Jesper saved four match points in the second game of the final against Oliver Stephens and then led 18-16 in the third. For once his legendary will to win deserted him at that stage and the boy from Kent won 21-18.

There were good performances from other Cippenham members. David Ralls, from the Club's Woolwich Junior British League team reached the semi-final and Paul Pountney was eliminated only one round earlier. Warren Brooks, Johnny Davidson, Daniel Jacobs and Robert Hansell all progressed from their groups.

Jane Dickens reached the semi-final of the girls' event, while Claire Maher won the consolation.

Samantha stars at Sunderland

Samantha Marling had her best results of the season at the Yasaka Northern Open in April. Sam won the Band 1 Singles and the Womens' Doubles with her sister Sally. For good measure Sam also reached the final of the Womens' Singles where she lost to Sally.

Martin picked for England

Martin Rule became the latest Cippenham player to get international honours when he played for the England cadet team at the Spanish Junior Open in May. Martin has also earned a call up for the home countries quadrangular tournament in June.

Double for Jane

Jane Dickens became only the second player ever to win both Slough League singles handicap competitions in the same season. Jane won both the Lynford Bowl and the Wharton Vase at the finals played at John Crane TTC in April.

Another title for Gareth

Gareth Herbert won the Slough League's Masters title at Cippenham in May, and with it the £120 first prize. In a final between two junior players, 16 years old Gareth beat Martin Rule, two years his junior. Martin had good wins over Mike Rhodes and Kimber Choda on his way to the £60 runner-up prize.

Cippenham set up record win

Cippenham won the Slough League last season for a record equalling thirteenth time. Same club, new team. This time it was the all junior Cippenham Vagabonds team that triumphed - congratulations to Gareth Herbert, Martin Rule and Jesper Hougaard and to team captain Ken Phillips.

Gareth also played in the individual events at Manchester, becoming the first Cippenham member ever to compete in the World Championships. Gareth won several matches in the various events, his most successful being reaching the fourth round of the Mixed Doubles with Lindsay Thornton.

Gareth failed to get through his Mens Singles group and also fell at the first hurdle in the Mens Doubles with Darren Blake.

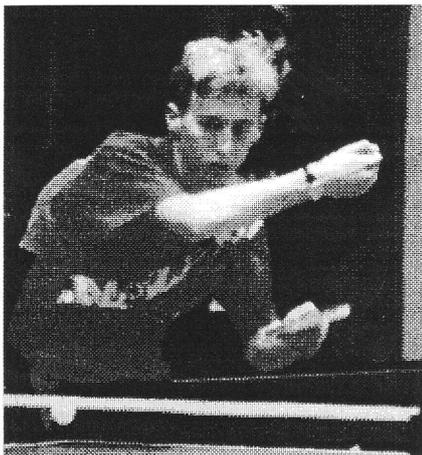

In the Ranking Tournament Gareth was successful in his group but was then eliminated by Eric Owens (USA) in Round 1.

Stars train at Cippenham for the World's

Prior to the World Championships at Manchester several top players were spotted training at Cippenham. Along with regulars Gareth Herbert, Ewan Walker and Matthew Syed, lucky visitors were also able to witness, on occasions, the skills of Alex Perry, Terry Young, Darren Blake and New Zealand number one Peter Jackson.

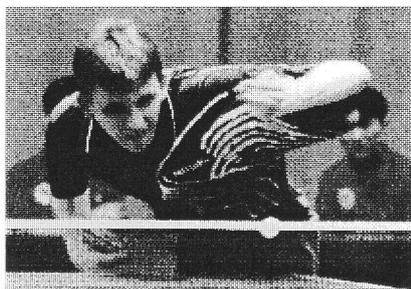

England number one Matthew Syed is another who rates Cippenham the best in the country!

Alex Perry travels from Devon to play at Cippenham!

Eastern Region holds seminar at Cippenham

Cippenham Table Tennis Centre hosted a seminar for delegates from the Eastern Region on 25th May. The event was the brainchild of Eastern Region Development Officer Sandra Collins and included a tour of the new Centre, various talking sessions and a small tournament in a day that lasted over seven hours!

Under the title of Dreams Can Come True, the three main spoken sessions were:

Daring To Dream

Building The Dream

Living The Dream

Club members Graham Trimming, Paul Baker and Steve Joel were able to give delegates a valuable insight into how the Cippenham project came about and how it was realised, and how the Centre is operated now it is built.

Some of the delegates, of which there were forty, were already running their own purpose built facilities, while others were at all other stages from planning onwards.

Let us hope that many more of these centres become a reality in the near future.

ALEC WATSON RETIRES AS CHAIRMAN

The retirement of Alec Watson, after ten years as Chairman of Cippenham Table Tennis Club, was marked with the presentation of an inscribed tankard at the Club's Annual General Meeting on 28th May. After being forced to retire prematurely from playing table tennis due to an ankle injury, Alec decided that now was the time to call it a day on the management side as well. Alec will be forever remembered as the Chairman who guided the Club through its recent development and for the work he did in chairing the Building Sub-Committee throughout its successful existence.

The Management Committee, elected at the same meeting, welcomes back "old boy" Frank Earis, as well as new committee members Rhys Evans and Simon Mellish.
