Robert and Jane Dominant - all five titles at Bucks Closed

Cippenham players returned from the Bucks Senior Closed Championships at Milton Keynes on 8th December with all five major titles and the stars of the show were Robert Hansell and Jane Dickens.

Jane, who has been a Cippenham member for more than a decade and is currently studying at Birmingham University, won all three titles open to her. Jane saw off all her opponents in winning the Women's Singles and for good measure took also a share of the Women's Doubles and Mixed Doubles, the latter in combination with fellow Cippenham player Mark Jackson. Mark, the current Slough League champion, also won the Men's Doubles with Robert Hansell while the High Wycombe player also won the Men's Singles having beaten Mark in the semi-final and Thai Kwong Lieu of Milton Keynes in the final.

Progress Made In All National Competitions

Both Slough boys' teams progressed through the first phase of their national cup campaigns last month. The U14 team in the Leach Cup beat Barnets 5-3 and Reading 5-0 but lost to North Middlesex 3-5. The team was represented by David Hayes, Ashley Shaw and Andrew Linz.

Just after Christmas the U14 team of David Hayes, James Milton and Oliver Shaw beat Barnets 9-0, had a walkover against Bracknell/Wokingham and lost to North Middlesex 4-5 in the initial stage of the Leach Cup.

Meanwhile, the girls' U14 team got though to the national finals of the Hammersley Cup by default. These will be played at Knowsley on 24/25th May. Both boys' teams play their stage 2 matches on 2nd February (what planning!).

Cippenham's top boys' team in the NJL are fighting back, having beaten leaders Bournemouth in the latest round of matches and go into the second half of the season in second place. The formidable trio are Oliver Shaw, Ashley Shaw and Sebastian Bielec. Most of the other Cippenham teams are struggling in this company, especially the very young girls' team of Katie Rule, Rachel Farquhar, Stephanie Mitchell and Angela Oetiker.

The Slough League has now reached two-thirds completion and Cippenham teams top three of the four divisions. In Division One, Pirates look set to regain the championship and have beaten nearest contenders Chalfont Argonauts twice by the impressive score of 9-1. Outlaws are in second place but need a good win over Argonauts in the third series of matches to stay in that position. Defending champions Rogues could still have a say in the destiny of this position also.

The race for the Second Division championship is hotting up and although Villains currently occupy pole position, they are likely to be overtaken by Burnham Nomads when the latter catch up with their two matches in hand.

Mark Banks tops the Division One averages with just one loss so far, the same number as Mike Rhodes, while David Hayes has tasted defeat only twice. Top of the second division averages is Kuldeep Singh, who lost his first two matches of the season and has won every one since. Kuldeep will surely be a star in the higher division next season.

Bucks Expect To Do Better In Second Half

The Bucks junior team, playing on home ground at Cippenham Table Tennis Centre, had a difficult start to their Junior Premier Division season at the beginning of November. With top player Bradley Evans away in Bratislava playing for England, it was left to his nine-year brother to lead the team in an under-18 competition against the best players in the country. It is hard to believe that a younger player would ever have played in this division let alone at number one. Bucks were further diminished when David Hayes had to miss the Saturday match because of a family bereavement.

Taking all into account, including the fact that Bucks were due to play against the best three teams during this first weekend, the fact that one point was won should be regarded as a point gained rather than five lost. Better results are expected in the second half of the competition at Grantham in March.

James Milton and Stuart Tweedy were drafted into the team in place of Bradley Evans and David Hayes for the Saturday match against Cheshire. Gavin Evans gave Bucks a great start by beating Tom Page in the opening set but after that only Gemma Chapman managed to win as Bucks went down 8-2.

Sunday started the way that Saturday finished with another 8-2 defeat, this time at the hands of defending champions Glamorgan. Chapman again won one as did David while Warren Brooks, deputising for Bradley Evans, Gavin Evans and Emily Tucker failed to trouble the scorer.

However, Bucks summoned up all their fighting spirit to gain a point from a superb 5-5 draw with third-placed Yorkshire in the final match. The prospect of this looked bleak as Bucks trailed 3-0 with Gavin, Warren and Emily all having failed, albeit against highly ranked opposition. Yorkshire would not have expected their number one player, nationally ranked ten, Simon Nouch to lose both his matches but this is exactly what he did with first David Hayes and then Gavin Evans beating him over four games. These two victories plus others for Gemma and Emily over the Yorkshire number two girl Amanda Bell brought the scoreline back to 4-4. Gemma then won her second match beating her bogey player Nicola White, ranked one place lower than Gemma at number six, for the first time in eighteen months. This left David with the opportunity to win the match for Bucks but he could manage to win only the first game against Richard Moss as Bucks settled for a 5-5 draw.

Mixed Fortunes in British League

While Cippenham's first team floundered at Harlow in the second session of the British League Division 1 South, the Club's second team put together a combination of good results to consolidate their position in Division 2 South.

The first team, missing the services of both Richard Tilford and Martin Adams, managed only one win and three losses from their four matches. It was not until the final match of the weekend that the team found their touch by which time they had recorded successive losses to Byng Hall Farningham Print I 2-6, OLOP Impact I 3-5 and Horsham I 1-7. Mark Butler and Lee Dredge won one each against the Tunbridge Wells side Byng Hall, while Lee won two, including a great win over Robert Pountney, and new signing Martin Gunn one against OLOP (Reading) and Mark was the solitary winner against Horsham. However, the final match provided an emphatic 7-1 trouncing of De Vere NETTS with captain Clive Payne gaining his first wins of the weekend to add to two each from Mark and Martin and one from Lee.

The second team started with an impressive 5-3 win over hosts London Progress III with all players contributing and Paul Baker making the difference with two wins. He was ably backed up by Mark Jackson, Robert Hansell and David Hayes who won one each. In a tremendous team performance all five wins were "unexpected". Then followed a disappointment as a 2-6 defeat was suffered at the hands of a strengthened Guildford side with only Mark and David scoring. However, five of the six losses were in the fifth game. For the Sunday matches Robert Lemon and Gemma Chapman replaced Paul and David and two drawn matches ensued against Oxford Fireplace Centre and EBS-Orange Northampton II. Mark won twice against Oxford with both Roberts also scoring, while against Northampton it was Robert Lemon who won twice backed up by one each from Mark and Robert Hansell.
