Cippenham Table Tennis Club - Building A Future For Players Of All Ages And All Abilities

Third Place For Ladies at Half-Way Stage

Cippenham made a good start to the Women's British League campaign at Grantham over the weekend of September 7/8th. As champions of Division 1 last season, promotion to the Premier Division was met with the need to strengthen the team. Gemma Chapman and Becky Hurrell (nee Fisher) remained from the previous season and former Welsh international Lesley Keast (she played in the 1985 and 1989 World Championships) added her considerable experience.

Cippenham eventually finished in third position in the eight-team division with six points from two wins and two draws. The starting point was a 3-3 draw with Eagle Printers, a match in which all three Cippenham ladies won a match but found the Czech player Marketa Myskova a more daunting prospect. This was followed by the weekend's first victory, 4-2 over Leeds. Claire Newsom won her two for the losing team while Gemma did likewise for Cippenham. Saturday concluded with a 0-6 defeat at the hands of league leaders Grove who lost only one set all weekend. Grove included a Chinese player Zhao Shuang at number one.

Sunday got off to a great start with Irish Ladies being dealt a severe blow 5-1. Only Becky suffered defeat here although Lesley had to fight hard to defeat Linda Mountjoy 3-2. The weekend finished as it had started with a draw. This time it was Grove's second team and all three Cippenham players again scored a win to turn a 0-2 deficit into a 3-2 lead.

The second weekend is again at Grantham in January.

Bucks Trials

Cippenham players dominated the Bucks trials filling the top 8, top 5, top 4 and top 3 places respectively in the junior boys', cadet boys', junior girls' and cadet girls' categories. Bradley Evans headed both boys' events, followed by his 9-year old brother Gavin with David Hayes third. Emily Tucker and Caroline Linz won the girls' events.

Slough Hard Bat

The Slough League's annual Hard Bat Tournament is due to take place at Cippenham on Wednesday 23rd October. Entry forms are in the foyer and should be returned to Elroy Hull as soon as possible.

Melanie Wins Cadet Open

Home players only just failed to secure a win double at the Cippenham Cadet 2-Star Open Championships on 15th September. While Melanie Farquhar was successful in winning the Girls' Singles, David Hayes lost out 11-8 in the fifth game of the Boys' Singles final to Chris Lewis.

Prior to the final, David, who was top seed but suffering from an injured finger, had been untroubled. He won all his matches leading up to the final three-straight including a 7, 4 and 4 semi-final win over Dorian Robinson. David, however, paid the penalty for losing the second game of the final 14-12 but won the first and fourth games.

Nikki Pilgrim in the final. Both matches were close-run affairs, Melanie finally succeeding at 11-7 in the fifth in the semi and 11-9 in the fifth in the final.

The other two Cippenham girls to make it through the groups met in the first round when Caroline Linz got the better of Catherine Hayes.

Ashley Shaw had his best tournament to date, getting through the bottom quarter to meet Chris Lewis in the semi-final. Ashley beat Matthew Tucker, Daniel Ives and Alim Hirji after progressing through his group in second place. Other Cippenham players to make it though the groups were Prabdeep Panesar, Andrew Linz and Matthew Tucker.

An entry of 95 players, a good turnout for an early season event, kept the nine tables busy all day. The event was organised by Sue Hayes and refereed by Mick Strode.

Boys' Singles:
Chris Lewis (Sy) bt David Hayes (Slough) -6, 12, 9, -6, 8
Girls' Singles:
Melanie Farquhar (Bk) bt Nikki Pilgrim (Wa) -2, 7, 10, -8, 9
Boys' Consolation:
Mark Perkins (Do) bt Yasir Mauthoor (E) -9, -9, 7, 10, 8
Girls' Consolation:
Amy Taylor (Bu) bt Sade Ademakinwa (E) 8, 8, 9

Melanie was only seeded third to win the girls' event but nevertheless came through the bottom half of the draw to beat Cippenham team-mate Sylvana Bielec in the semi-final and top seed

News in Short

Southern Region Trials

Cippenham players won both events at the regional cadet trials on September 22nd. Gavin Evans topped the boys' list while Sylvana Bielec headed the girls. Other Cippenham players to qualify for the national trials were Myles Evans, Matthew Tucker, Melanie Farquhar, Caroline Linz and Rebecca Tweedy. The club's top players were exempt by virtue of their positions on the national ranking list.

Improved Lighting

Grateful thanks are due to Terry Boxall, Ken Phillips and Peter Hillier who worked all one Saturday to replace all 180 light bulbs in the playing hall. The lux level should now be back to its original 600 having fallen to 350-500 in places.

Paid Duty Officer

The Club is still seeking to recruit a paid duty officer for Tuesday and Thursday evenings. If you know of anyone who would like to earn £30 an evening please let Ken, Jacquie or Graham know.

Home Internationals

Joanna Parker made her senior England debut in the Home International series of matches in September. Joanna saved her best form for the Women's Singles event in which she reached the semi-final.

Gareth Cliches England Victory

Gareth Herbert clinched England's recent 3-2 win over Turkey in the European League when he defeated Infan Tavukcuoglu 3-2 from 0-2 down.

Cippenham Table Tennis Club - Building A Future For Players Of All Ages And All Abilities

CIPPENHAM NEWS

Both Teams Off To A Good Start in British League

Both Cippenham teams made good starts to the new British League season over the weekend of 31st August and 1st September. Playing on home territory Cippenham "A" had three wins and one defeat from their four matches in Division 1 South while the "B" team exceeded expectations with two victories and a draw in Division 2 South. The "A" team currently lie third in the division while the "B" team is fourth.

The season could not have started brighter for Cippenham "A" who demolished De Vere NETTS (North Essex) 8-0 in the opening match on Saturday afternoon. Only Lee Dredge, making his Cippenham debut, was at all stretched, having to come back from two games down to defeat Andrew Doshier. This performance earned Lee the "Man of the Match" award. Richard Tilford, also on debut, started well in the number one position and was well supported by Martin Adams and Clive Payne. The later Saturday match produced a showdown with last year's divisional champions London Progress II but this resulted in Cippenham's only lost points of the weekend. It all came down to the fifth game of the last set in which Lee once more came back from two games down but, this time, did not have the edge in the fifth and succumbed to Darek Zurowski. Cippenham's wins came from Richard and Clive, who both had good wins over Eli Baraty, and Martin who beat Daniel Fesehation. Progress' Paralympic double gold medalist Taju Agunbiade won twice for the victors. Ironically, Progress were weaker on the Sunday while Cippenham had their first choice team available so if the match had been delayed 24 hours the result might well have been different.

With first choice Mark Butler replacing Lee on Sunday, the "A" team secured two more wins to end on a satisfactory note. All four players won as Cippenham raced into a 4-0 lead over Enfield-based Ellenborough. Nerves jangled as the visitors came back to 4-3 before Clive got the extra point with a three-straight win over Matthew Spero. The weekend finished with a 6-2 win over EBS-Orange Northampton I. Richard and Mark both won their two matches while Martin and Clive picked up the others.

Cippenham's second team of mostly young players did themselves proud after gaining promotion last year. In the first match against EBS-Orange Northampton II the top of the team, Mark Jackson and Robert Hansell, won all their matches while of the two cadet players David Hayes won one and lost the other at deuce in the fifth but James Milton disappointed by scoring a duck. It was a different story later in the day as Cippenham made little impact on PSP Westinsure, who were last season playing in Division 1, and lost 7-1 with only David Hayes on the scoresheet.

Robert was retained in the team for the Sunday matches and was joined by Lee Dredge, released from first team duty, and juniors Robert Lemon and Gemma Chapman. All four players tasted victory as a 4-4 draw was earned against Horsham II from 2-4 down. Later, Cippenham scored a tremendous 5-3 victory over Hastings who had earlier been the only team to deny PSP Westinsure full points. Lee led the team from the front with two wins, including an 11-9 fifth game win over Paul Barry, and Robert Lemon also got his brace. They were supported with a fifth-game win for Robert Hansell over Nick Standen.

The weekend was organised by Graham Trimming, refereed by Graham and Ken Phillips while Ken and Dave Bull both provided valuable administrative assistance.
